WAR RISK WINS FROM CLOFFEPS IN GREAT GAME

Union Park was no place for a ervous man in the final half of the ninth inning of the game won by War Risk from Cloffeps, 2 to 1, yes-terday in the fifth game of the postseason series for the sandlot base-ball championship of the District. Jarboe had the Cloffeps club feel-ing out of his hand and was never

Second game for the solons after Harper had been yanked for a pincher. There were ten thousand present when the prolonged session began, and about five thousand remained to the bitter end. Mays started the first one a bit unsteadily and it looked as though he intended to take his first walloping of the season from Johnson, but he was as steady as a rock at the end. Duffy Lewis got five hits in all from the Speed King, which is more than Johnson usually gives per game to a team. The score:
